This calls for a combination of continuous, meaningful and real-time conversations, feedback and coaching.

CHROs say ongoing feedback triples the levels of talent engagement. Getting managers personally invested further increases engagement.

94% of CHROs say employee engagement is an important workforce challenge

The rapidly increasing younger workforce has an instant need for more interaction, leadership connect and continuous feedback. They look for continuous learning to act on performance conversations.

84% of employees' perception about their organizations is driven by their managers

51% of employees see their performance reviews as inaccurate

27% of CEOs think that inadequate IT systems is the barrier to performance engagement

THE NEED?

There is a need for transformation of work and talent ecosystem to make employee-led factors the pivot for performance. Further, organizations need to build a culture of autonomy and accountability where employees are inspired to give their discretionary energy to outperform.

Managers need to be empowered with data and tools to obtain insights. Managers need a platform to enable continuous performance coaching conversations with the right data and insights. Only then can employees trust performance strategies, understand their performance in real time and feel closely engaged.

CO-CREATING INSPIRING PERFORMANCES WITH SMAC EFFICIENCY

WNS' TalentTurf™ provides a unified, robust and comprehensive single-platform efficiency with all the performance related applications. It leverages emerging technologies to incorporate a host of collaborative features to boost engagement-driven decisions.

24x7x365 Chats and Conversations

Live platform with year-round access to employees and managers to enter performance inputs, engage in feedback and coaching sessions on real-time basis.

Integration with Leading ERP Systems

Can be integrated with leading ERP systems – SAP, PeopleSoft, and any proprietary HCM suite. Allows a seamless flow and collation of relevant enterprise data for better insights.

Social Media Look and Feel

Aesthetic and easy-to-use interface creates the sentiment of an engaged interaction. Users can upload documents, videos and audios and emoticons as rating indicators.

Multi-channel and Multi-device Digital Versatility

Actionable usage and engagement dashboards can be accessed on the Web, tablets and mobile, supporting different operating systems - Windows, Android and iOS.

Intuitive Visual Dashboards and Reports

Creates a human and social approach to provide right insights for trust-based and business-aligned decision making. Employee life-cycle values of learning, development and growth can be consolidated in a single page for easy and logical understanding.

Embedded Analytics for Insights-driven Decisions

Multi-tier descriptive, predictive and prescriptive analytics provides powerful connections between measurement, actions and outcomes. Enables understanding of risks, opportunities and recommendations at speed and scale.

360-degree Feedback for Continuous Coaching Conversations

With its 'seek feedback' functionality, employees can seek feedback from anyone in organization. Managers can also proactively initiate coaching conversations. Additionally, Outlook integration enables 1-o-1 meetings in real-time.

Comprehensive Feed and Conversation Search

Advanced keyword search from multiple sources (including attachments), and effective word clouds enable positive reinforcement of behaviors and actions.

Versatile Communication Templates

Managers and employees can deploy easy-to-use templates for goal-setting and performance feeds - documents, e-mail, audio and video. Employees can also add individual and team performance notes.

EMBEDDED ANALYTICS — DRIVING THE RIGHT PERFORMANCE BEHAVIORS

In today's business environment, the attributes and skills that deliver maximum benefits to organizational growth can change frequently. As organizations gear themselves up for better innovation, attributes such as initiative and risk taking may find greater traction with supervisors and leaders, even as functional and operational excellence remain important.

TalentTurf's embedded analytics help stakeholders visualize all the evolving trends on performance behavior, management and engagement in the organization in a coherent manner. With equal parts of descriptive and predictive indicators, these insights ensure timely encouragement of the right, business-aligned behaviors at every level.
